

Welcome to the complete guide for Visas in Uganda, all the information, visa requirements, tourist visa, exempted countries, classes and entry permits as well as immigration tips.

It is not hard for you to get a visa on arrival since Uganda is increasing becoming a popular tourist destination. The visa processing is simple so as to encourage many visitors to this pearl of Africa.

How to Get a Visa to Uganda:

The easier way of getting a visa to Uganda is by applying for it online at <https://www.visas.immigration.go.ug/> or purchasing it at the entry point, Entebbe Airport or any border station.

Visa Fees

- Diplomatic visa (for Diplomatic and Official Passport Holders) - USD 0.0
- Uganda Ordinary/Tourist Visa - USD 50
- East Africa Tourist Visa - USD 100
- Transit Visa - USD 50
- Multiple-Entry Visas for six Months - USD 100
- Multiple-Entry Visas for twelve Months - USD 100
- Multiple-Entry Visas for 24 Months - USD 150

You can also get a visa by applying online by visiting <https://www.visas.immigration.go.ug/> if you a citizen of the following countries, USA, UK, South Africa, Russia, Japan, Italy, India, Germany, France, Denmark, China, Canada, and Belgium. All you need to do is to download the application from the embassy website of your country of origin. you will need to attach 2 passport photos.

Visa requirements are subject to change.

It is therefore advisable to take advice from the relevant embassies before traveling.

Entry permit.

A Single journey entry to Uganda is given and on arrival, visitor pass is issued for purposes of having a holiday, travelling, or doing business in Uganda. Multiple entry visas can be granted for business purposes.

TOURIST VISA TO UGANDA

All tourists to Uganda are kindly requested to comply with the requirements below before they can get a visa to Uganda.

1. Every traveler must have a valid passport of nationality or origin issued by their Government.
2. It's safer to have the International Inoculation Certificate against yellow fever.
3. You may also be asked to show your return ticket. This is usually not asked.

Please note that individuals who are American or British citizens as well as almost all commonwealth nations and Europe do need a visa to get to Uganda.